

WORKING AT THE PUBLIC TRUST OFFICE

Our People

One of the strengths at the Public Trust Office is that we employ motivated staff, who know that what we do really does improve the quality of our clients' lives. Working in our organisation is both rewarding and challenging. We make sure our employees are trained and supported to ensure they have the ability to make the best decision for the client.

We are looking for employees who are interested in people, employees who understand that our clients need our help and employees who are willing to provide that help to the highest professional standards.

Our employment conditions include:

- Flexible salary packaging
- Study assistance scheme (SARAS)
- Generous government superannuation (up to 12.75%)
- Balancing work, family and lifestyle commitment through flexible working hours
- Equal employment opportunities
- Training/development opportunities

Our Vision

Queenslanders' preferred trustee.

- We make a difference.

Who works for the Public Trust Office?

The Public Trust Office has 15 offices throughout Queensland.

The Office has over 500 staff working in a wide range of disciplines and fields including:

- Direct client service in deceased estates, trust and disability services
- finance, investment & taxation
- legal and paralegal
- auctioneering/property management
- policy development & community engagement

- public affairs & customer relations
- information management/technology
- administration
- auditing
- human resource management

Be part of our team now
- be part of our business,
make a difference.